

As a gesture of solidarity with the child slaves of Haiti, parents once again provided cakes and other treats at the parent-teacher day at the “Max Valier” technological upper secondary in Bozen. Pupils sold these delicacies in support of the project “Preventing Child Slavery in Haiti”.

Thanks to all who contributed!

